T.I.M.E. TRAVEL WITH THE W.G.M.

Greetings to each and every one of you from the Sunny South. As I sit here composing this newsletter, I am reflecting on all the Blessings that have been granted thus far. We are off to a fantastic start. Installations and initial procedures have been completed. Brother Darrell and I are already having a wonderful time. Our travels have been without incident. A chapter that had considered consolidating is reconstructing and is planning on a wonderful year. Blessings are all around us!

I am delighted to have been invited to the opening sessions of the Jobs Daughters, Rainbow Girls and DeMolay. Each group has their own special roles and goals, but they are all dedicated to God, family and friends. In friends, this does not limit to personal acquaintances, but those around the world. They are raising funds for many important causes. I was touched by Job's Daughters promotion of H.I.K.E. (Hearing Impaired Kids Endowment); presenting a check to a family. There are a number of good causes which our youth have been promoting and raising funds. Let us continue to support them, as these youth are our future.

I was very saddened in hearing of the passing of our Brother Jim Hollingsworth. He was a very special and dedicated gentleman. He made an impact on our Order that will remain with us forever.

Now that I am back in the real world, I have planted my feet firmly on the ground and am getting my bearings. The overnighter with our darling daughters was a delightful and eventful evening. These lovely ladies will be giving my instructions and when they come into your chapters you will understand our reasoning in choosing them to be our "Rays of Sunshine". Each one of them have their own personality, are very kind and thoughtful.

Our projects have been unveiled and the State Chairpersons are getting the information out to the chapters and district chairpersons. Multi State is August 10th and the first inspection in the State is at Connersville on August 17th with the Grand Officers exemplifying the work.

In my closing I wish to leave you with the following quote: "A good memory is one that can remember the day's blessings and forget the day's troubles."

God Bless and remember: We are all "Showered with Blessings".

Elizabeth Lashley
WGM

Sisters and Brothers,

I hope that your summer is going well. Mine seems to be busy and the Grandkids have not been here yet.

I have been blessed to witness what our Star means. It is friendships, support for one another, support for good causes and having fun while doing it. It is most especially about our belief in God. Never lose sight of this and He will always shower you with blessings.

Since I last wrote my first article, we have had a great School of Instruction and Washington Chapter and District 2 did great. District 7 had a great lunch, they can really cook, and Rollo's pulled pork tasted oh so good. I have been able to go and participate in several installations and be with some of my dearest friends. Becky and I went to the Job's Daughters Grand Session and are now looking forward to The Rainbow Girls and DeMolay sessions. Let me tell you, the young people involved are on the right path. The adult leaders listen to them and are to be thanked for their efforts because these kids are going to make a difference in their world. Now it is up to us to invite them to join the Star and Blue Lodges to help us to grow and become stronger. If we listen to their input and work with them, we will have good members that will make us viable for the future and we can all work for the betterment of our fellowmen. What a legacy that will be. Remember, "Don't Ever Give Up".

By the time that you read this our reception will be over. Becky, Liz, Charlie and I are looking forward to seeing as many of you that we can. Then the meat and potatoes portion of the year starts. We hope to see as many of you that can come to the receptions and official visits so we can chat and enjoy each other. About that time I may need to know someone that mows grass and pulls weeds.

I close by saying once again "DON'T EVER GIVE UP" and remember you are about to get around to it!

Together with love,

Darrell Arthur

WINGS OF HOPE

Thank you to all the members and friends of the Indiana Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star who made donations to Sister Sonda's Special Project – Wings of Hope. Gifts from the heart are the best kind and we were able to present the President of Wings of Hope, Douglas Clements, with a check for $28,397.63 at Grand Chapter. I want to share with you an email I received from Anne Volland, Administrative Manager of Wings of Hope.

Hello Margaret,

Doug called me right after the Grand Session and couldn't wait to tell me about all of the wonderful women in your organization he was able to meet with last Saturday. Your ideas were wonderful! The planes, stickers, boarding passes, were fantastic and I'm sure your Chief Pilot will enjoy "her" blanket for years to come. Never in the history of Wings for Hope has there been such a unique fund raising event in support of our US based MAT Program. There are no words to express enough thanks for the great difference your organization will make to hundreds of children in need.

We are honored we were able to help Brady and humbled by the true giving spirit of everyone who participated in your OES Airways Project to help more children like him.

If there is ever anything we can do to assist you or anyone your organization is associated with, please do not hesitate to call.

Kindest Regards,
Anne

Reporters and Stellar Stars

A new Eastern Star year has started. Worthy Grand Matron, Elizabeth Lashley, has a calendar full of events already in place for the year. You can learn more about those events by looking at the Calendar of Events in this issue.

Two topics will be covered in this article, with the hopes of explaining more about them, and they are Star-Lite District Reporters and Stellar Stars. Both of these are important parts for the STAR-LITE Magazine to be effective.

There is a Star-Lite District Reporter in each of the 21 Districts for Indiana Grand Chapter, with a support staff throughout the state as assistants. Nancy Pratt, as Editor, receives articles and proofs the results. Gail Bailey, as Director, places them in magazine form. Each edition then goes to the web person for publication on the Indiana Grand Chapter website. (indianaoes.org) The Star-Lite District Reporter no longer has to worry about writing subscriptions for our magazine. The last report received gave under 60 members with subscriptions paid and being mailed. This number will continue to dwindle. The Reporters can now place emphasis on attending District events, taking pictures, and writing short articles about those events. Give your Reporter a call. Advise them of the date and special event so they can plan to attend. When they are unable to attend an event, designate someone to collect the information, and then forward the info to your Reporter. They can submit, or help you submit to the Editor. Electronic transfer is the quickest and most efficient way for the Editor to receive the information, either as part of an email or as an attachment. Articles and photos should be e-mailed to Nancy Pratt, Editor. Chapter events and District events are news to Eastern Star members, probably more to members who now live outside a District or out of the state. It is our wish that STAR-LITE will continue to inform our members with the news of the state. Contact your District Reporter so that Your news appears in Your magazine, the STAR-LITE.

Stellar Stars has been a part of STAR-LITE Magazine for several years and serves as a means for members, groups, clubs and organizations to acknowledge, with a monetary donation, individuals or groups who have made extensive contributions to Indiana Eastern Star. There are 5 different levels of donation, from 1 star to 5 stars. Some speculation takes place as to how these funds are used or where the money goes. This year we want everyone to know your donations will be used to pay for the Grand Chapter website maintenance. This is not just an annual fee. There is operating time, putting the new documents on-line, updating existing information, and deleting data that becomes obsolete. When each issue of STAR-LITE reaches final form it is downloaded onto the website. This is completed through the Grand Secretary's Office because they oversee the printing of the issues still under subscription and operate the website. This year, Amy Ogrentz will be tracking the Stellar Stars donations. That means she will make the list and submit the grouping for Stellar Stars to appear in STAR-LITE. Send your request to Amy Ogrentz along with a check payable to Indiana Grand Chapter, OES, with the notation: Stellar Stars.

You can contact the Editor through the OES website by clicking on Contact Us, then click on Nancy Pratt and then you can write and email her a message. She will also forward on any messages for Amy Ogrentz.

Sue Midkiff Ends Two Year Reign

Sue Midkiff, the Worthy Matron of Ransford IMH Chapter, has been in office two years in a row. She filled a vacancy due to a resignation. Those introduced for the evening were: Perrietta Appleton, P.G.M.; Joyce Small, P.G.M. and Grand Trustee; Barbara Heath, 6th District Star-Lite Reporter; Sandra Heath, Grand Representative of the Grand Chapter of District of Columbia; five Past Matrons and Past Patrons; Carl Hinshaw, Past Grand Organist; and Derek Lacey, Worshipful Master of Devol Masonic Lodge.

After all the business was completed for the year, Joyce Small, Worthy Matron-elect asked to take Sue on a journey. The program used was about the Rob Morris house in LaGrange, Kentucky. As Sue was presented at each Star Point, a flower of the color was placed in a vase she held.

Franklin Bids Leaders Farewell

On June 12th Franklin held the last meeting for the year with Linda Beeler, Worthy Matron and John Haynes, Worthy Patron. Special guests for the evening were: Jonny Beeler, Grand Secretary; Beulah Jones, Grand Secretary Emeritus; Lexi Johnson, District Deputy; Barbara Heath, 6th District Star-Lite Reporter; Sandra Heath, Grand Representative of the District of Columbia; Judy Haynes, Past Matron; Anna Burton and Richard L. Moore, both youth group leaders at Franklin.

After all the business was complete, the Worthy Matron had seven men to be honored as fathers and Masons. They were escorted to the West for a “sweet” gift—a large candy bar.

After the Closing, a small skit entitled “The History of Golf” was presented by the retiring officers. Linda Beeler is an avid golfer and plays every day so Barbara Heath had compiled the material for the officers. They each read facts about golf—known as “gowff” in Scotland. There were many historical facts given about the game and some of the vocabulary used in the game. Did you know the name “golf” stands for “Gentlemen Only Ladies Forbidden?” But some thought that this was a joke gone bad. At the conclusion Linda and John were given a toy golf bag filled with golf clubs and balls. Kathy Moore gave each a monetary gift from the officers.

In the photo are Jonny Beeler, Conductress; Linda Beeler, Retiring Worthy Matron; and John Hayne, Retiring Worthy Patron, after learning about the game of Golf.

Betty Daubenspeck Receives 75-year Award

On a beautiful April spring day, Sister Sonda Schapson, WGM, presented Sister Betty Daubenspeck her 75-year Award. Betty was all smiles that day as you can see from the pictures of her with Sister Sonda and with Jim Brooks, WP. Betty was initiated into Fishers Chapter on August 9, 1938, and served as Worthy Matron in 1949 with the late Waldo Binford. Betty turned 95 on January 14th, but she is still sharp as a tack and had many memories to share.

Sister Sonda was gracious to come to the nursing home in New Castle, Indiana, where Betty resides. Also present were Michelle Hedrick, wife of the WGP; Tina Vredenburg, AGC, and her dad; Mary Beth Alvey, Grand Warder; Jim Brooks, WP of Fishers Chapter; Edna Baker, Secretary of Fishers Chapter; Cathy and Ivan Sherman, Warder and Sentinel of Fishers Chapter; and Jim and Karen Daubenspeck, Betty's son and daughter-in-law. This is the second 75-year Award presented to a member of Fishers Chapter in 2 years!

Edna Baker, Secretary

Dear Star-Lite Readers,

Plans are in the works for each chapter in District #13 to give their information to me as their Reporter. I will attend their events and take pictures if I know when the events are. If they want to mail their own information to me I will be responsible to see that it gets to Nancy Pratt, the Editor of Star-Lite.

I am really excited about this and inspire each chapter to participate and make a page each month from your chapter for Star-Lite. Looking forward to a great year.

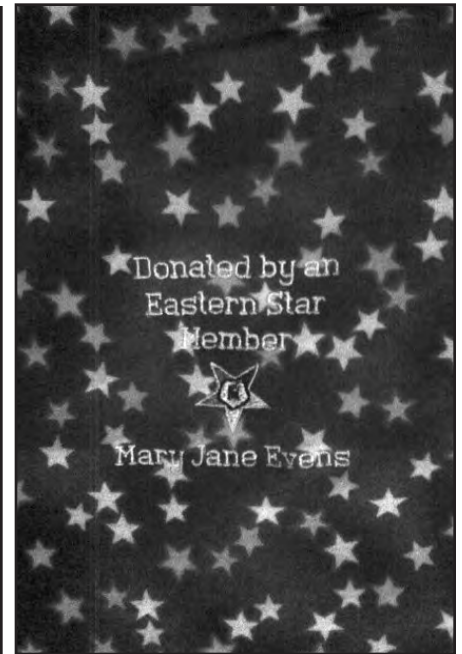

Your Star-Lite Reporter
Allie Mae Huber, District #13

Community Service is Alive and Well in Indiana

This year the WGM has chosen to raise money for the Riley Hospital for Children with her “Karing Kangaroo” Project in hopes to provide car seats for the children leaving the hospital. Our WGP has gotten on board and have asked the members to donate Preemie items for Riley Hospital for Children. Even the subordinate chapters in Indiana have embraced the “Community Service” concept.

At Daleville Chapter #568 they had a yearlong project collecting monkeys for their police department and also contributed to the police dog fund.

I even had a “Community Service” Project fall into my lap. When my great nephew was diagnosed with Autism, it was not the news my family expected to receive. My niece, whose husband is in the Air Force and stationed in England, was in search of a “weighted blanket” prescribed by her doctor. She called my sister asking to find her one in the States, since they were quite expensive in England; my sister in turn called me to see if I could make one.

Well one thing lead to another and after making a “weighted blanket” and sending it to England, I was asked to make more for the children with Autism of military families. I reached out to my Sisters and Brothers in Eastern Star and suggested this as a “Community Service” Project to chapters that want to help. The response has been overwhelming. I had contacted the Most Worthy Grand Matron and she has encouraged me with this project. I had asked her if it would be permissible to place on the blankets the Eastern Star Emblem along with the member and or chapter that has donated toward this blanket. These blankets will then be sent to England to the U.S. Air Force Base Hospital where they will be distributed to those military families in need of a weighted blanket. She thought it was an awesome idea! What is a weighted blanket you may ask?

*According to OT (Occupational Therapy) Innovations, therapeutic use of weight is a common treatment option for both children and adults suffering from conditions such as autism, Sensory Processing Disorder (SPD), depression, anxiety and other types of mood disorders. In particular, those who suffer from SPD have a difficult time processing and reacting to the information coming in through the body's senses. Weight and deep pressure applied to muscles and joints provides a calming sensation, helping the central nervous system in processing and integrating tactile information and body awareness. Weighted blankets are often compared to swaddling an infant.

This blanket is on its way to England, courtesy of Sister Mary Jane Evens. Don't forget, the Royal Arch Masons have their RARA project that you can support through our Eastern Star. They are funding research on Autism and Central Auditory Processing Disorder.

Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth. 1 John 3:18

Until next time;

Aloha From Ransford IMH

On Sunday, May 19, 2013, Ransford chapter IMH held their Friend's Afternoon in Kresge Chapel at the Masonic Home. Since Ransford does not meet in a Masonic lodge, we could meet on Sunday.

The theme was a Hawaiian Luau which was carried out in the festive and colorful decorations. Many officers and other guests had worn Hawaiian dress. Sue Midkiff, Worthy Matron, began the meeting with a poem, "A Friend".

An addendum was presented by the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of District #6 for Debbie Hamilton, their District Deputy. It was on the Hawaiian theme, too. First Debbie had to get ready for the festivities. She was dressed appropriately for the day in a grass skirt, a flowered lei and even a white shell bra top (worn over her dress). The six WMs and two WPs spelled out "MOMMA MOP" which was the theme of the 6th District group this year. Each read verses about Debbie Hamilton. She was given a quilt made by Barbara Brummett from the District showing a square for each chapter. She was then asked to demonstrate how to do the hula, but I won't tell you what she said.

Introductions of the guests was next: Madonna Meyerrose, PGM, and Alan; Joyce Small, PGM and Grand Trustee, and Lonnie; Gloria Jonas, widow of Jerry Jonas, PGP; Larry Frost, Grand Marshal, and Nancy; Lisa Wagoner, DD#4; Debbie Hamilton, DD#6, and Steve; several Grand Chapter Committee appointments; Sandra Heath, Grand Representative of the District of Columbia; 6 WMs and 2 WPs; and many Past Matrons and Past Patrons. The Grand Usher for D#6, Bob Esarey, was also introduced.

The entertainment for the afternoon was provided by Jerry Cox, "The Singing Hawaiian" who sang a variety of Hawaiian songs in the two languages and many other favorites. The officers then introduced their friends and presented them with gifts.
