

Aloha from the Worthy Grand Matron

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I'm writing an article for NOVEMBER! Can you believe how fast this year is traveling by? It seems like the older I get the faster time goes by – but I'm not THAT old so why is it going so fast? Well, maybe because I really am THAT old, I'm just in denial.

With November here it will not be long before we celebrate Thanksgiving. This is a special day that I spend with my family and friends eating all those "special" dishes that we prepare once a year and watching the Detroit Lions play whatever team is lucky enough to be their opponent. Most years it is an automatic win for that lucky team.

Since Thanksgiving is for giving thanks (hence the name) I'd like to reflect on what I'm especially thankful for:

1. The beautiful landscape that God has given us. I must say that this year the trees are especially beautiful. I'm driving under a canopy of color that will take your breath away.
2. I'm thankful for my family. They are so supportive of me and I'm so appreciative. Without their support I could not hold this very important office.
3. My family's health. As everyone knows I have the task of auditing all the secretary's books. It saddens me to read of all the illness that my sisters and brothers are experiencing. My prayer is for healing of the body, mind, and spirit of all who are suffering.
4. For the privilege of living in the United States. There is nowhere I'd rather be than here in the good 'ole USA. I am thankful for the service people who have chosen to stand up to our enemy so that we may remain free. Butch has two nieces and a nephew who are serving in the military for our freedom and a niece who is a police officer. My prayer is that they remain safe.
5. That I may worship as I choose. Even though my God is your God I have the freedom to worship him in a manner that is comfortable for me.
6. I'm thankful for our Order of the Eastern Star. I have an extended family thanks to our Order. Anyone who is not a member cannot understand the ties that we have and it is hard to describe to them how deep they run. We are so lucky to be able to call ourselves family.

I've thoroughly enjoyed the time we have spent together at the various luncheons, inspections, and receptions. There are still many ahead of us and I'm looking forward to each and every one – don't forget to bring your hugs!

May all your days be filled with Sonshine.

Sonda

P.S. Don't forget to put your change in the lady flamingo. I want to see Cary perform the hula hoop at Grand Chapter!

Hello to all of the Sisters and Brothers. Seems like just yesterday that I wrote my October article. Sister Michelle and I just got home from the golf outing at Andrews, IN. I want to again thank Sister JoDee for putting this outing together for Sister Sonda and me. I believe she said we raised about $900 for the Masonic Home Project. I also want to thank Sister Diana Surfus and her mother Betty McHenry for dipping ice cream at the Masonic Day Celebration. I believe they raised $1200 for the project, also. They had a lot of help from Sister Michelle, Brother Butch and several of our Beach Bunnies. They are too numerous to list them all, plus I wasn't in there all of the time, so I'm not sure how many of them got the opportunity to help. Thanks daughters.

As I write this article, it's hard to believe that it's for the November Star-lite. This year is sure going by fast. We are hot into the inspections and so far they have been going great. I believe we have been to 7 districts and have had full houses in every district. We have had the first inspection in District 20 and the one in District 16 is coming up. If you haven't had a chance to see the Grand Officers exemplify the work, I think you are missing some great work. Of course I may be a little biased, but they have been doing good work.

We also are well into the Grand Officer receptions, with the deputy receptions set to start in December.

We have the "OES Has Talent" contest coming up. By the next due date for an article I should be able to tell you who our big winner is. Good luck to all entrants.

I'd also like to remind you about our bus trip in May. I realize the deadline for the first installment is past due, but I'm sure you can still get signed up.

Sister Michelle and I would like to wish everyone a happy Thanksgiving and wish everyone safe travels as you travel to see your loved ones in this holiday season.

Hope to see you in your district as we come and attend your inspections. Safe travels and see you down the road.

Cary Hetrick WGP

Youth Honor Night

Franklin Chapter held a special Honor Night on September 26th just before our regular stated meeting for the Job's Daughters and DeMolay. The group is shown with Associate Conductress Sandra Heath and Conductress Jonny Beeler. Linda Beeler, W. M., presented each one with a gift of a candy bar. There were seven adults present with this group. The chapter gave each group a check for $100. Refreshments were served in the dining room and then the Eastern Star held its stated meeting.
