

Following Our Dream

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This month I'm a little over excited at how fast these few months have gone by, and things are going rather smoothly I must say. As Spring and Summer (my favorite) months have passed, fall is here which means WINTER is right around the corner!! And you all know I despise the cold weather because I have always been a country girl who ran around bare foot and in shorts. That means we will have to start putting on those winter sweaters, coats and boots.

All of the students have started back to school and college. Our grandchildren have started kindergarten and preschool. Carter has lost his first tooth the first week of school and the second tooth the second week of school.

I have looked at our Calendar and noticed how we are one third of the way done and can't believe where the time has gone. George and I love to travel and when this year is done we have promised to do one thing we both have wanted to continue to do and that is to continue our mission trips in Haiti, as we have Haitian families that we love and support. Oh, we have families here as well that we love and support, it's just the joy of seeing the smile on those little Haitian children when you can give them a piece of candy or a new pair of shoes for the first time which is priceless! We also love serving on the Emmaus walks in the fall and spring, which I have not had the chance to serve since I have been on this journey these fast five years. The team knows when my term is over they are ready to have me back to serving on team again, but I do still serve on team in a major way and that is through prayer.

And we Believe prayer is a big part of our life, we definitely believe in the power of prayer. We have seen it and felt it when WGP Brother Larry Frost went through his Chemo treatments and Brother George's Sister Holly and many others who are dealing with this horrible disease called CANCER. That is why we believe in supporting the Cancer fund and hope everyone will join in and support it too, so we may help fight and find a way to cure this horrible disease.

Don't forget the other fund raisers as well, especially the WGM/WGP projects, Dine and Recline, those little penguins, meal tickets, penny wars, plastic caps, pops tabs, ESTARL, RARA, Knights Templar Eye Foundation, Membership, Our World of Youth. Please don't forget to support Sister Susie Roach and wear her Susie Button and get on that bus to Pittsburgh wearing your black and white and bring her back as RWAGC for Indiana.

We are also hoping you all are going to hop on board with us to Branson, Missouri in May. Ask your District chair person about the trip and let's have a great time and bring your friends as I'm bringing a few of my non-OES members along. Brother Larry, Sister Nancy, Brother George and I have enjoyed seeing you all when we are out traveling and your support means the world to us.

If we learn how to give of ourselves, to forgive others, and to live with thanksgiving, we need not seek happiness. It will seek us.
Love and Believe ~ Tina

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is hard to believe this is the October issue of the Star-Lite magazine! Where does time go? This is a historic issue as it is the first printed and mailed issue for 3 years. The members have met the challenge and have made it possible for the Star-Lite to be published once again. Please let the members know that the Star-Lite is being mailed once again and it is not too late to send in your subscription. In order to continue to mail the magazine, we must maintain our current subscriptions and hopefully, continue to add to our mailing list with new subscriptions.

Fall is in the air and soon God will paint the landscape with his beautiful palette of colors and remind us of his power and grace. This is my favorite time of the year and I enjoy driving and admiring the scenery. We continue to attend the Official Visits and enjoy talking to old friends and meeting new friends. Eastern Star is an inspiring organization made up of loving and caring people. Encourage your chapter members to travel and meet new friends. I always say that members who only attend their own chapter meetings aren't getting the full value of their membership.

If your chapter doesn't have an Obligation Night, I would encourage each to do so. Gather all your members around the altar and repeat the Obligation of the Order. Think about the words as you repeat them. There are many good points contained in the Obligation - points that should be remembered and followed faithfully.

We will be leaving very soon for General Grand Chapter in Pittsburgh. I hope to see many of you there wearing your black and white in support of our own Sister Susie Roach as she tries to make her dream come true. She is running for Right Worthy Associate Grand Conductress. We in Indiana are proud of Sister Susie and wish her the best of luck. Sister Tina, Brother George, Sister Nancy and I will have a suite at the Doubletree Hotel. Please stop in and visit with us. We will try to let you know our room number as soon as we have the assignment.

Our Grand Officer receptions are in full swing on Saturday's. Please attend the receptions if time allows and show your support for those serving our Indiana Grand Chapter. The District Deputy receptions will follow soon. Show these lovely ladies your love and appreciation for all they do to support your chapters.

I look forward to seeing each of you as we travel. I will close with this:

"Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed, is more important than any other one thing."

General Grand Chapter Committee Members Thanks

On behalf of Sister Kathy, Brother Greg, and I, we would like to thank all who attended our Open House on July 11th at the Elliott House in Kokomo. We want to share the grateful thank you we received from Northern Indiana Service Dogs with all of you. Through the generosity of the members of Eastern Star, we were able to help two more realize their dream of independence.

This year at General Grand Chapter an amendment to make The Service Dog Project a permanent project will come on the floor. Both Sister Kathy and I have direct involvement with a Service Dog, Sister Kathy with her Granddaughter and I with Frank. Many of you have seen Briley, Frank's service dog at Eastern Star functions. Our Worthy Grand Patron actually "kissed" Briley.....(really kissed her). Words alone cannot express the difference Briley has made in Frank's life and I'm sure Sister Kathy can relate. For those attending General Grand Chapter, please don't be shy; let them know how you feel about passing the Service Dog amendment.

On a personal note, I want to thank all those who took part in a Community Service. Many chapters across the State took on "outside" projects of their own, and I hope that they will continue to do so. I believe that by serving a purpose for the greater good in our communities, our chapters offer its members an opportunity to feel that they can make a difference. The picture of the little boy in bed with his "Weighted Blanket" and his "Service Dog" watching over him says it best! Thank you again from the bottom of my heart.

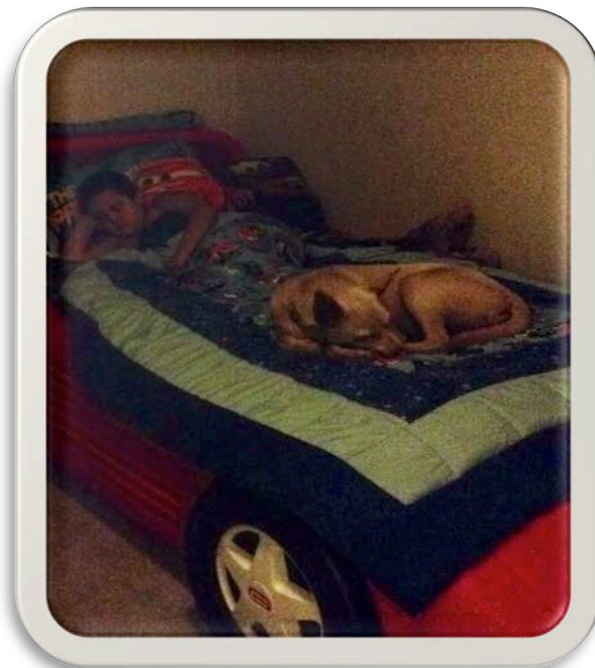

Compassion and generosity are the true measures of human worth. –

Jonathan Lockwood Huie

Deby Thomas, PGM

Cheryl Tichenor "Hops on Over"

Middletown Chapter #110 welcomed guests to the "Hop on Over" reception honoring Cheryl Tichenor, District Deputy #12 on March 28, 2015. The chapter room was decorated with frogs, spring flowers and shades of teal and silver. A beautiful prelude was played by Phyllis Murray, Past Grand Organist.

Ned Cline, Worthy Patron, escorted Cheryl to her seat and Pam Butz, Worthy Matron, welcomed everyone. The Pledge of Allegiance was given and the National Anthem was sung. The invocation was given by Sally Woodward, PGM.

Cheryl, Honey Bee #12, was presented at the altar by Debra Parrish, Conductress, for introduction. She was dressed as a Honey Bee by the Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of District 12 and was escorted East. She was presented with gifts from the District. Her tribute was read by Betty Swisher, WGM.

Guests introduced were Betty Swisher, WGM; H. Fred Smith, WGP; and Past Grand Matrons and Past Grand Patron – Sally Woodward, Dianna Bullock, Sonda Schapson and Cary Hetrick.

The S and S Bouquet of Love Grand Family was escorted across the East for introductions: Charlie Swisher and Diane Smith, spouses of WGM and WGP; Tina Vredenburgh, Associate Grand Matron, and George; Larry Frost, Associate Grand Patron, and Nancy; Cindy Skura, Associate Grand Conductress; Ron Mendenhall, Grand Chaplain, and Karen; Pat Scott, wife of the Grand Marshal; Lexi Johnson, Grand Adah; Sherrell Bryant, Grand Esther; Diana Surfus, Grand Electa; and Arlene Mohler, Grand Warder.

The District Deputies introduced were: Juanita Cox, DD#1; Janet Sweet, DD#2; Tammy Bedell, DD#3 and Ben; Wanda Gray, DD#4 and Denver; Gleda Brooks, DD#5 and Jerry; Sandy Harris, DD#6; Sue Hays, DD#7; Tiffany Ingles, DD#10; Patricia Crask, DD#11 and Mitch; Linda Stewart, DD#13; Margaret Smith, DD#14; Barbara Tate, DD#16; Ardeth Criswell, DD#17; and Patsy Kuhn, DD#20 and John. After her Sister Deputies had been introduced they took Cheryl through the line and presented her with "Apples for the Teacher", a few of her favorite things. The first item Cheryl was presented was a Barbie Doll gift bag to hold her "apples" and when her granddaughter, Jillian who is 4, saw it, she thought she needed to help grandma. Jillian helped the rest of the way through the escort by putting the "apples" on a tree.

Cheryl then introduced her family: her sons Brad, Bryan and Brett and his wife Lissa; her grandchildren Dakin, Jillian and Patrick; her sister-in-law Donnetta Ratliff; and friends Brenda Jarrett, Marilyn Robbins and Dawn and Dillion Elston. She then had Middletown Chapter and District 12 stand. She thanked them for their love and support this year.

Sonda Schapson, PGM, and Cary Hetrick, PGP, spoke and presented Cheryl with a charm which they had given to their Grand Representatives.

The entertainment for the afternoon was given by Malcom Greene, who portrays Abraham Lincoln. He gave a speech on many lesser known facts about our 16th President.

Following the Benediction and table grace given by Dianna Bullock, PGM, everyone went to the dining room for a delicious dinner.

MARSHA CLINE - 50 YEAR AWARD OF GOLD

On Thursday night, July 2, 2015, in the Newberry #198 Chapter, Marsha Cline was presented with her 50 Award of Gold by Past Grand Patron, Darrell Arthur. Her son, Michael, flew in from Seattle, Washington to view the ceremony and to pin his mother. He joking told everyone that his mother had always told him that she brought him into this world and would take him out if he misbehaved. He must have been a good son.

Marsha stated that for almost every one of her fifty years in OES, she had held an office in the chapter. This year she is Secretary in the Newberry Chapter and Chaplain in the Columbian Chapter. She was Deputy for District 7 for 2009-10 and has served as Worthy Matron about 15 times. She was initiated in Bloomfield Chapter but has served in Lyons, Newberry and Columbian. In addition to Newberry members in attendance, there were OES friends from Bloomfield, Ellettsville and Stanford Chapters to wish her Grand kudos.

A salad meal including a large appreciation cake for Marsha was served after Marsha's Award of Gold ceremony.

Well done Marsha, but your sisters and brothers want to continue to see and share with you in chapter.

History is in the making for Newberry Chapter #198. This Chapter, located in rolling hills of southern Indiana, bought a Bank building across from the old lodge and is compounding their member's interests for the long term by converting the building over to the first OES owned Building. This will be the only bank with a 5 "Star" rate of return. This is quite a change from the current lodge building that has served its members needs for over a hundred years. The new bank building will fill the bill as all rooms are on a safe and level ground floor. The vault in the building adds security to priceless historical holdings. The building will also be utilized for Newberry community activities making it an asset to the local citizens thus sparking new interest in OES.

Becky Arthur, WM, and Darryl Arthur, WP and PGP, and numerous sisters and brothers have invested a "lot time" in making the building work for both Star and Masonic meetings. Years of fund raising, ice-cream socials, garage sales, soup and spaghetti suppers have helped market this dream to a reality. There will be no chapter closing in Newberry, just solid financial planning for the future. You can bank on it.

On August 8th, the 17 newly installed Newberry officers accounted for great initiatory work during their Deputy Visit and it was their first return on their investment.

WHO DID YOU SEE AT GRAND CHAPTER?

Every year that my wife Millie and I go to Grand Chapter we meet someone we didn't know that had a connection to us. This year was no exception.

Early Saturday morning we went down for breakfast in the Marriott Hotel. The only other person in the restaurant at that early hour was an elderly lady sitting by herself. We sat down at the table next to her and waited for the buffet tables to be ready.

Millie knows no strangers when we eat out and started up a conversation with the nice lady. It seems we had seen her behind one of the registration counters the previous day, but no casual conversation had exchanged. We are all too busy with registration, etc. Her name turned out to be Lorene Call from the upper part of Indiana. She asked Millie if she had an office next year and Millie said as Deputy of District 7.

SHOCK TIME: Lorene had been the Deputy of District 7 fifty-seven years earlier. She still remembered inspecting our Chapter in Ellettsville in 1958 with the then Worthy Matron, Barbara Roberts. Barbara was Deputy of District 7 the following year. Lorene wrote a nice letter to Barbara and when Millie gave it to her, Barbara's face lit up in happiness.

I hope the people that you bump into at Grand Chapter provide you with as much joy as meeting Lorene did for us.

Ransford IMH Installation

On Sunday, June 28th, Ransford IMH held its installation of officers for 2015-16 at Kresge Chapel. The altar was decorated with a quilt made by Laura Rhoades for a farewell gift for Carlton Hinshaw, retiring Patron at Lynhurst. Since Carlton was going in as the Worthy Patron at Ransford, he had the quilt used as part of the decorations. It was green with white squares centered with the Eastern Star emblem and the emblems of the star points that were embroidered.

In the East there was a fan of the five star point colors with a musical scale and in the West was featured a bowling pin decorated as a penguin.

The Installing Officers were: Joyce Small, Grand Trustee and Past Grand Matron as the Installing Officer; Mary Hudson, Past Grand Star Point and Past Deputy of District 11 as the Installing Marshal; Lonnie Small, Installing Chaplain; and Rick Lassiter, Installing Organist.

After Sue Cheeley took her vows, the 2015-16 Worthy Matrons formed an escort holding snowmen, lighthouses, top hats, snowflakes and butterflies. The same escort was formed for Carlton after he took his vows.

The other officers installed were: Emily Lacy, Associate Matron; Derek Lacy, Associate Patron; Sue Midkiff, Secretary; Orrel Jenkins, Treasurer; Virginia Prairie, Associate Conductress; Lonnie Small, Chaplain; Beverly Coffel, Marshal; Barbara Martin, Organist; Barbara Heath, Adah; Laura Rhodes, Ruth; Sandra Heath, Esther; Karen Draper, Martha; Edwina Collins, Electa; Carolyn Sims, Warder; and Dick Midkiff, Sentinel. Prompter will be Bill Green. Joyce Small will serve as Conductress and will be installed later.

After the closing, refreshments were served.

Christmas in July is a Seasonal Delight

To cool off their OES Friends during the humid days of July, Loyal Chapter #49 of Richmond, hosted a "Christmas in July" Friend's Night on Thursday, July 16th. It was a pleasant blend of Independence Day and Christmas as OES members and guests gathered for fun and fellowship. Due to conflicting scheduling, the attendance numbers were down, but the playfulness and giggles were up.

After table grace and the reading of the poem "Christmas Hot – Christmas Cold", a meal of turkey franks and burgers, tasty side dishes and Minion cupcakes was enjoyed by all. Santa came to visit wearing his summer shirt and red cap. He passed out candy to everyone...naughty and nice!

Everyone brought two dozen cookies for the Christmas Cookie Walk. There was a great variety of cookies for everyone to take home (or nibble while games were played). The games were started by unscrambling Independence Day and Christmas words. Stacy Baker was able to unscramble all the words within the time limit!

Adorable stuffed fish were table decorations that were given away as door prizes. The cute expressions on the fish's faces brought out the kid in all of us! Bus Tour Bingo was played using playing cards instead of Bingo cards. A mixture of Christmas and Summer Fun prizes were won by all.

The evening was completed by a Christmas version of "Hot Potato" game which was led by Geri Howard. Each person was given a Christmas Angel ornament and circled around Geri. As she read Twas The Night Before Christmas, she instructed everyone to pass the Angel to the left when she read "and" and to the right when she read "the". Sounds easy, right? It is if you're not laughing and having a good time waiting for the special words to be read!

Deborah Hopkins, WM of Loyal Chapter #49

Santa (AKA Terry Hopkins) passes out candy to Tom Ring as Carol Scott enjoys her candy. Robert Frazer looks a little concerned wondering if he's on Santa's naughty or nice list!

Guest Sandy Clements, OES members Tonya Sparks, Dot Thorman, Nancy Frazer and Linda Shepherd fill up their cookie containers during the Christmas Cookie Walk.

Fishers Honors Our Youth

At our August 11, 2015, stated meeting, Mary Kay Patterson, Worthy Matron, and Don Munden, Worthy Patron, Fishers Chapter #446, honored our Youth Groups. They were invited to our pitch-in dinner at 6:30 and were honored prior to the start of our meeting at 7:30. Mary Kay read the poem "Fraternity."

The picture shows members and adult leaders of Job's Daughters Bethel #108, Fishers; Greenwood Assembly #78, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls; and Carmel Chapter, Order of the DeMolay. Also in the picture are Mary Kay and Don standing in the middle.

We were so pleased that they took the time to come and let us honor them.
